

There are an estimated 3 billion people in the world under the age of 25.

NewGen PeacebuildersSM is a global youth peace education program that emphasizes the role, value and impact of young people ages 14-24 in achieving a peaceful world.

NewGen Peacebuilders has been endorsed by the Rotary Action Group for Peace. Grants funded through local Rotary Clubs and Rotary Districts support scholarships for students to participate in NewGen Peacebuilders programs.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION & DATES

NewGen Peacebuilders trains and equips students to:

- Truly understand drivers of conflict and peace
- Imagine innovative solutions that create change
- Take positive action to address an issue affecting a community or communities

The result is empowered young people who are equipped to actively resolve conflict and build bridges for the rest of their lives.

The NewGen Peacebuilders program is delivered as an extracurricular program over the course of the spring semester. Students who successfully complete these key activities become certified NewGen Peacebuilders:

Immersion Workshops

Five day-long workshops delivered over the course of a school term introduce peacebuilding frameworks and tools.

Guest Speakers

Conference calls or in-person conversations feature local, national and international peacebuilders.

Peace Projects

Participants are coached and mentored to design and implement team action peace projects.

CONTACT

Elizabeth Peacock, Director of Operations
epeacock@newgenpeace.org
USA Tel.: +1 704.607.3301

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

Mentors

Ongoing advice and counsel from experienced project managers

Immersion Workshops

Dialogue, discussion and interactive exercises that develop peacebuilding skills

Peace Projects

Tools to design, plan, manage and measure change

Readings & Resources

Online library of case studies, videos, articles and interviews

Guest Speakers

Presentations and Q&A with peacebuilder role models

NETWORKING, AWARDS, RECOGNITION

NewGen Peacebuilders program alumni become part of an international network of young peacebuilders. The NewGen Peacebuilders program and graduates have received awards and recognitions from:

LEARN MORE & APPLY:
www.newgenpeace.org